As we look back over our shoulders and reflect in the past, our days spent here become a blur with the unexorable passing of the years, but we are secure in the knowledge that this book will serve to provide many "Retrospective Glimpses" as time fades into history and we become one of many whose footsteps and echoes have reverberated through the halls of PEABODY HIGH SCHOOL.

Classroom, outside activities spark life at Peabody High

Within the classroom Peabodians find pop quizzes and homework all a part of the daily routine. A pensive Biology student dissects under the ever-vigilant eyes of an alert instructor.

A senior English class acts out Shakesperian drama. A government class contrasts Communism and the principles of American freedom.

However, life at Peabody reaches beyond the classroom. After school Peabody athletes assemble with coaches for pep talks and strategy talks. Band members liven up the spirit with a rhythmic march at an after-school pep rally.

After school, a staff room light burns late as a dedicated writer seeks inspiration. A Peabodian cheer, not yet polished with practice, reverberates through an empty hall, the murmur of voices drifts from a lighted room as a confused student seeks help from a dedicated teacher, an actor repeats a faulty line, a talented pianist practices.

A weary athlete leaves the locker room after a hard but needed practice. A roar of applause swells from the auditorium as a talented Peabodian performs.

The swish of taffeta and the scent of roses announces a class prom. A dark auditorium becomes ablaze with light, seniors clothed in white and blue file past, a graduation ceremony begins.

Other days find Seniors touring campuses, juniors taking competitive examinations, wistful sophomores wishing, and freshmen just waiting.

At PHS there is time for many activities and emotions. Each invites the thought, the cry, "This is the time!"

Each has its place in Peabody High School.

Homecoming, 1963, was an event that will stand out in the memories of long hours spent at dear, ole PHS.

Amidst screams, laughs, and cheers, the Homecoming assembly opened. Skits proved to be a humorous tonic for the day's fun and pep talks raised the hopes for victory to new heights. Climaxing the assembly was the beautiful ceremony of coronation.

The game at night was our climatic moment. We cheered loudly and our team did its best; we defeated our opponents from Powatan. We attended the dance after the game in a festive mood as we whirled to music and did the latest steps.

Afterwards, streamers lay about, the dance floor was empty, but Homecoming, 1963, will remain in every heart.

In line with our Homecoming assembly, these beauties helped to spark a very gay and colorful affair as they paraded in evening gowns before their peers.

COLLEGE NIGHT

As we look back on College Night, we think "What a big night for PHS." Some of us had already decided where we were going to further our education and we really wanted to become acquainted with people from the schools of our choice. But for others who were still undecided, it afforded an excellent opportunity to perhaps finally decide upon a school after having listened to and interviewed the various representatives from the schools present. Some of the schools represented were Morgan, Union, Penn State, Virginia State, Hampton, Smith-Madden, and others.

CLASS POEM

Peabody, we humbly now depart,
With joy and yet pain in our hearts,
The days spent with you are quite rewarding,
And we'll never forget your good deeds and thoughts.
We shall leave you Peabody,
With our heads held high;
Saluting you for the great lessons well taught.
Your dreams of us we will try to make perfect,
For you, our great dear Alma Mater.
Peabody, we cherish thee so very dearly,
And we say to you with gratitude and thanks,
As the grief befalls each and every heart.
We'll always honor thee Peabody, for your great teachings well done.

Vera Abbott

CLASS SONG

We'll miss you so, when we go on Our way. We'll ne'ver forget the things you stand for, because you've helped us in so many ways.

Oh, P. H. S. your halo will surround us and we will always hold it high and proud. Our principal and his

We honor thee our Alma Mater and proudly hail thee through all times. We love your halls of

CLASS HISTORY

Peabody High School
Petersburg, Virginia

In September, 1959, students from the seventh grade classes of four elementary schools assembled at Peabody High School to be inaugurated as the eighth grade class in the fall session of school.

These students had completed the required work of elementary school students, and had matured enough to accept the responsibilities of high school students.

These same students, plus a few new faces, have now completed the work required of high school students. They are now ready to accept the responsibilities of the future parents, scientists, politicians and teachers of our country.

Before they say farewell to one another and depart, let us return to the year of 1959 and watch them progress scholastically, athletically and culturally.

There were many frightened girls and boys at Peabody that September day. They wanted very badly to become a part of the school family. They wanted and received help from their teachers. As a result of this help, Mary Jones, Paulette Mayfield, Maxine Hooper, Mary Watson and Ernest Givens joined the choir. Joseph Johnson, Lelia Mayfield, Barbara Ford, Sandra Hill and John Richardson joined the band. The Student Council received many abled bodied persons such as Marjorie Dyson, Lamara Hines, Lynne Wright, Maxcine Cannon, Sandra Lowe, Florence Turner, Barbara Thrower, Robert Thweatt, Veronica Birkhead, Clyde Bailey and Hibernia Parham. Joining the New Homemakers of America were Vera Abbott, Marjorie Dyson, Lelia Mayfield and Priscilla McLeod. The Safety Patrol Club welcomed Audrey Epperson, Maxcine Cannon and James Jones. Richard Dunn and Brenda Ganey joined the Art Club with Brenda also joining the modern dance group. The Library Club received such book worms as Ralph Smith, Catherine Ruffin, Mary Christian, Veronica Birkhead, Vera Abbott, Sandra Lowe, Paulette Mayfield, Marjorie Dyson, Susan Smith, Juliette Turner, and Luther Archer. And last, but not least, James Hill joined the J. V. basketball team.

When we returned to school in the fall of 1960, we really felt like high school students, for this year we were freshmen. Many of us had matured more than others, but we were still freshmen. Adding their voices to the famous Peabody Choir were James Smith, Marjorie Dyson, Lelia Mayfield, Barbara Ford and Vera Abbott. Lelia Mayfield, Patricia Smith and Ernest Givens joined the Student Council and by the way he became President of the Student Council in his senior year. Marjorie Dyson, Lynne Wright, Veronica Birkhead and Sandra Lowe joined the Polygon Club. The latter two young ladies also joined the N. H. A. The Future Business Leaders of America received such business ladies as Lena Giles, Shirley Williams and Patricia Smith. Barbara Ford, Lynne Wright, and Jacqueline Peterson joined the Library Club. Jacqueline also joined the Art Club along with Paulette Mayfield, Robert Thweatt, and Willis Madden. James Hill, Mary Odom, Barbara Edwards, and Ernest Givens joined the Safety Patrols. James Hill and Willie Vaughan joined the football team while Jean Harrison joined the Cheerleaders to cheer our team on to victory. Eva Williams joined the Dramatics Club. John Richardson joined the Pep Club and J. A. A. Joining the Industrial Arts Club was Charlene Jones, Florence Turner and Joyce Robertson. Hoping to be crowned Miss Peabody was Burma Diamond. Along with many of numerous organizations, many of us scored high on the honor roll.

As we entered school for the third year, many of us joined more organizations. We also received a few new faces from other schools. They were Judy Pratt, Ida Brown and Vivian Bland. Vivian joined the Industrial Arts Club and Dramatics Club. Shirley Williams, Barbara Thrower, James Macklin, Diane Foy, Gloria Redwine, Gloria Robinson, Dorothy Parker, Jean Harrison, Johathan Lee and William Scott also joined the Industrial Arts Club. Such great actresses as Audrey Epperson, Cynthia Walker and Mary Watson joined the Dramatics Club. Diane Foy, Barbara Thrower, Catherine Ruffin and Charles Goode became Cheerleaders. Joining the Choir for the first time were Ernestine Johnson, Audrey Epperson, Lynne Wright, and Vivian Bland. Shirley Williams, Vera Abbott and Carroll Avery joined the Student Council. Virginia Hubbard, Gloria Robinson and Sandra Saunders joined the F. B. L. A. and the Safety Patrols. Two new book worms joined the Library Club for the second year. They were Vera Abbott and Leroy Hill. Barbara Thrower and Dorothy Parker joined the Polygon Club. The Latin Club also received new members. They were Priscilla McLeod, Joyce Robertson, Barbara Ford, George Bell, Ernest Givens, Willis Madden, Marjorie Turner, Anne Brown, Dorothy Parker and Catherine Ruffin. Betty McKeever, George Bell and Charlene Jones joined the Art Club. Bobby Archer and Edward Dickens joined the football squad. The J. V. basketball team welcomed Clyde Bailey and Johnny Brown as two persons who contributed much to our J. V. basketball team. The track team received two great outstanding runners, Willis Madden and Ralph Smith.

CLASS HISTORY

Many things happened in the 11th grade to many persons. James Macklin, Bert Oliver and Sandra Saunders joined the Industrial Arts Club. Richard Dunn, James Hill and Ralph Smith also joined the team. Bobby Archer became co-captain of the J. V. football team while Clyde Bailey became co-captain of the basketball team. The F. B. L. A. welcomed Janice Mitchell. Florence Turner and Dorothy Parker became members of the Polygon Club. The band received Joseph Johnson, Lelia Mayfield and Gloria Redwine while the Choir welcomed Barbara Thrower. Patricia Smith, Charles Goode and Lelia Mayfield joined the Student Council. The Safety Patrols welcomed Johnny Brown, Juliette Turner, Robert Thweatt, James Smith and Vera Abbott. Great Actresses for this year were Hibernia Parham, Lelia Mayfield and Priscilla McLeod. Barbara Ford, Vera Abbott, Charles Goode, Robert Thweatt, Wallace Williams, Willis Madden, and Luther Archer became members of the Projection Crew. Edward Dicken joined the baseball team, and Bert Oliver and Carl Matthews led Peabody's first "Gold Team" to victory. Charlene Jones and Gloria Redwine joined the Pep Club to cheer our boys.

The National Honor Society welcomed Maxcine Cannon, Veronica Birkhead, Sandra Lowe, Florence Turner, Marjorie Dyson, Lynne Wright, Dorothy Parker, Barbara Thrower and Cornelius Hudgins. Maxcine Cannon was elected President of the N. H. A. Mary Watson was elected President of the Dramatics Club. Lynne Wright and Barbara Ford were candidates for Miss Peabody with Barbara Ford an attendant.

Aside from becoming members of various organizations, we selected our class rings. We chose the oval ring which has now become the standard ring of Peabody High School. We also gave the Class of "63" their senior prom. Our class president, Richard Dunn and the class chose as our theme, "Roman Holiday."

In our senior year, Jacqueline Peterson and Barbara Smith joined the Choir. Jacqueline also joined the Art Club along with Mary Watson, Shirley Williams, Ernestine Johnson, Barbara Smith, Diane Foy, and Audrey Epperson. Gloria Redwine, Marjorie Turner, Betty McKeever, Gloria Robinson, James Macklin, Carl Matthews and Johnny Brown joined the Industrial Arts Club. Eva Reid became a member of the Student Council. Charlene Jones, Ernestine Johnson, Audrey Epperson and Hibernia Parham joined the N. H. A. Priscilla McLeod became head majorette while Donald Brackett joined the track team and James Smith joined the F. B. L. A. Barbara McCoy, Gloria Redwine, Gloria Robinson, Mary Jones, Hibernia Parham, Lamara Hines and Sandra Hazelwood joined the pep club. Barbara Ford was elected President of the band while Cornelius Hudgins was elected co-captain of the football team. Barbara Thrower, Catherine Ruffin and Jean Harrison were elected co-captains of the Cheerleaders. Richard Dunn was elected President of the class.

The Yearbook staff was also organized with James Jones and Sandra Saunders editor and assistant-editor respectfully. Other members of the staff were Shirley Williams, Diane Foy, Maxcine Cannon, Sandra Lowe, Gloria Robinson, Joseph Johnson, George Bell, Barbara Ford, Mary Watson, Patricia Smith, Audrey Epperson, James Smith, James Hill, Ida Brown, Marjorie Dyson, Lynne Wright, Vera Abbott, Janice Mithcell, Lena Giles, Susan Smith, Willis Madden, Richard Dunn, and Veronica Birkhead. The Yearbook Staff was one of the final and most important committees of the Graduating Class of 1964.

As we approach the culmination of our activities here at Peabody, there is, in our hearts, a feeling of accomplishment overshadowed by sadness. However, we must realize that our time here at Peabody has been well spent. We owe an invaluable debt of gratitude to our teachers who have, since 1959, struggled to improve us in all phases of education.

We feel that we have been transformed from immature, indecisive individuals to nature, responsible young adults. We hope that this change is evident.

There have been times when we thought the end would never come; it is here and we are sad. The song is ended, but the melody will linger on.

CLASS PROPHECY

The date, Nebruary 32, 1984; the destination, Essen-Dortmund-Diusburg; the setting, one of the world's leading airline cruisers, the Pan World Eastern Airline.

Once aboard the plane we are greeted by the airline stewardess, who is none other than MISS BRENDA GANEY.

All of the passengers except one, are enroute to a class reunion of the 1964 graduating class of Pea-body High School. Seemingly amazed at the fact that everyone was acquainted, the passenger in sheer puzzlement, approaches the stewardess and begins to question her regarding that fact. She proceeds to tell him that all the persons aboard are former classmates and they are getting together after 20 years. "If you pay close attention," she said, "I'll tell you a little about each one."

Let's begin by looking straight ahead and to the left. There you see Miss, or I should say DR. MARJORIE DYSON one of the world's foremost scientists who has just perfected the "solar bomb." Seated next to her is MISS MARJORIE TURNER, a spanish interpreter for the United States Department of Immigration.

Directly behind them we see MISS SANDRA SAUNDERS, an I. B. M. Systems Trainer at West End High, one of California's leading high schools. Beside her is MR. WILLIS MADDEN, Audio Specialist for the CBA-TV in Moscow.

Next we see REAR-ADMIRAL GEORGE BRANCH and COMMANDER EDWARD DICKENS, who have made a career out of the Navy with 18 years and 15 years accredited to them respectively. Boarding the plane in Vashti will be TECHNICAL SGT. RAYMOND MASON and MR. JOSEPH MASSENBURG, who is employed as a brickmason with the Valleydale Construction Company.

SANDRA HILL and SUSAN SMITH, who are laboratory technicians at Calcutta State Mental Institution, are seated in seats G1 and G2.

PROFESSOR GEORGE BELL, head of the History Department at the University of Istanbul with WALLACE WILLIAMS as his assistant, are sitting across the aisle from G1 and G2. Also employed by this University is MR. JAMES HILL, Professor of Biology.

In seats K1 and K2 we see ANNE BROWN and GLORIA REDWINE, nurses in the Peace Corps serving in Africa.

MR. HENRY BUFORD is District Attorney for the city of Leningrad and MISS VIVIAN BLAND is one of that city's best Attorneys.

JEAN HARRISON and EVA REID are two of the Unites States foremost Psychologists. They're also the stars of a T. V. show titled, "The Thirteenth Hour."

All of the empty seats you see will be occupied by other members of the class who'll make the return trip.

The passengers returned to their seat and just as they sat down, the voice of the pilot, Ralph Smith, is heard saying, "All passengers please fasten your seat belts. We are now preparing to make a landing at the Essen-Dortmund-Duisburg National Airport."

When the plane lands and the passengers are all off the plane, they are led to Chauffeur-Driven limousines which are to take them on a tour of the city.

The tour begins on Peking Avenue, where the main attraction is the Public Library and the Librarian is MISS BARBARA FORD.

As we go on, we come to the University of Essen-Dortmund-Duisburg, where JAMES MORRIS is professor in charge of the Trade Department with BOBBY ARCHER as his assistant. Working in the Science Department, we find MR. RONNIE GOODE and MR. LUTHER ARCHER, two of the city's most efficient physicists, and as head of the Math Department we find BARBARA THROWER with MARY ODOM as her most able assistant.

Next we pass by the Golf Course and on the green we see two of the world's best Pro-Golfers, BURT OLIVER, who has participated in the U. S. G. A. and the Masters Tournament, and CARL MATTHEW, who has participated in many International Matches and won the American Cup in New Mexico.

As we leave Peking Avenue and come into London Avenue, we see one of the city's high schools, Essen High. Some of the teachers on the staff are: FLORENCE TURNER, French; BENNIE PARHAM, Physical Education; PRISCILLA McLEOD, English; SANDRA LOWE, Math; PHYLLIS WEST, JOYCE ROBERTSON, and NANNIE GOODWYN, History, Government, and Geography respectively.

CLASS PROPHECY

The elementary-junior high school is located on Grant Avenue, and a few of the teachers on the staff there are: VERONICA BIRCHHEAD, NELLIE BRANCH, PAULETTE MAYFIELD, MAXINE HOOPER, and SANDRA HAZELWOOD.

As we proceed down Grant Avenue, we come to the business section of the city. There we see the offices of the more prominent businessmen. "Have Secretaries Will Travel," is the slogan of the Secretaries Corporation with MISS IDA BROWN as the founder and VIRGINIA HUBBARD, LENA GILES, and GLORIA ROBERTSON helping to make up the staff. The bookkeeper-stenographer for this corporation is SHIRLEY WILLIAMS, with JANICE MITCHELL, executive Secretary.

As we continue we come to Dior's, one of the leading fashion houses in the world. There we see MISS CHARLINE JONES, head fashion designer fitting two of Dior's best models, MISS MARY JONES and MISS PATRICIA JEFFERSON, for her latest creations. In the event alterations are necessary, JUDY PRATT, the head seamstress, is always on hand.

One of this city's most prominent funeral homes is Nickerbockers. There we find in charge of all business transactions MR. ERNEST GIVENS.

"We aim to please," is the slogan of Lee's Flying "A" Service Station, where JOHNATHAN LEE is proprietor and JAMES MACKLIN is one of the stations best mechanics.

Working and on the payroll of the East Side-West Side Welfare Center are: AUDREY EPPERSON, MARY WATSON, and LAMARA HINES, with latter two working diligently on the steadfast rising problems of poverty and blighted areas.

With a left turn, the tour continues on Karachi Avenue. There the visitors discover this city's most renown industrial plants where JOHNNIE BROWN and WILSON JONES head the radio and electricity department. Working with the secretaries and quite proficient in her field is MISS GLORIA JONES and MISS BETTY McKEEVER, IBM Technicians in the business department. The engineers for this plant are RICHARD GALES, CLYDE BAILEY, and JOHN RICHARDSON, and CORNELIUS HEDGINS, a prominent draftsman, is in charge and has his own department in this industrial plant.

Situated on Oakland Drive, about three miles out of the heart of the city, we see Essen-Dortmund-Duisburg's most attractive sight, its newly built hospital, Hope Memorial, with a staff of over 200. Some familiar faces working at Hope Memorial Hospital are: DRS. VERA ABBOTT and LYNN WRIGHT, Head Psychologists, WILLIAM WYNN, X-Ray Technician; BARBARA EDWARDS, Head Physical Therapist; REV. MOSES STITH and REV. SHIRLEY SMITH, hospital chaplains; and DIANE FOY, Medical Secretary.

The nursing staff consists of JACQUELINE PETERSON, nurse in charge of the children's ward. Working with here are: CATHERINE RUFFIN, HIBERNIA PARHAM, LELIA MAYFIELD, and BEATRICE MANSON. Not restricting their services to special wards are: BARBARA McCOY R. N.; PATRICIA KIZZIE; MARY CHRISTAIN; ERNESTINE JOHNSON R. N.; BARBARA SMITH; BURMA DIAMOND R. N.; DOROTHY PARKER R. N.; CYNTHIA WALKER R. N.; BARBARA WILLIAMS R. N.; and BETTY BATTLE. Quite an efficient staff, wouldn't you agree?

Now to continue the tour.

As we head back to the main sections of the city we see Major General DONALD BRACKETT head Military Educator at the Army Academy with Majors WILLIAM SCOTT, WILLIE VAUGHAN, CARROLL AVERY and COLONEL GEORGE SMITH Assisting.

Once we arrive in the city, we notice a great deal of conglomeration of people at the court house, only to later learn that three of the best known attorneys in the world JAMES JONES, MAXCINE CANNON, and JAMES THWEATT have been hired by the Multi-Millionaire, J. W. Van Hausen to defend him in a half million dollar law suit.

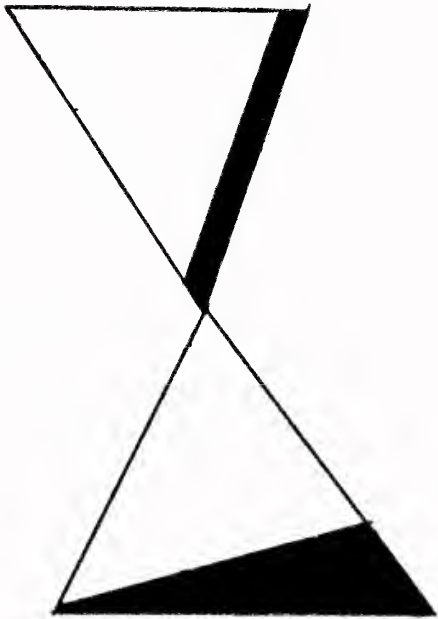

On Vancouver Avenue is situated one of the cities newest office buildings, The Smith & Smith Certified Public Accountants Firm. Persons working with this company are MR. JAMES SMITH and MISS PATRICIA SMITH.

Now that the tour of the city is over and the reunion festivities are taking place, my job is over. As I head back to the airport many thoughts run through my mind. One I consider to be most important is "Opportunities in the World of Work," and when I look back over the success of the class of 1964, it really makes me realize how important an education is.

By Barbara Ford
Diane Foy

Academically, as Peabody strives for heights of recognition and achievement, vital moments become commonplace. Motivated by a thirst for knowledge and mental cultivation, each student absorbs and expands.

Often this imbibed education extends into the library or into extracurricular clubs. Students benefit in every department from special attention of well-trained interested instructors.

Congratulations
Graduates!

Although now you are graduates, you can do a great service for the rest of us, if you never cease to be students -- looking for opportunities and ways to cherish the American system of free enterprise and to improve the American way of life. You can be thankful for free schools in a country where you are free to worship and work and think and talk as you please. This is your heritage from the people who built America.

The future is pretty largely in your hands -- you must be vigilant and active to combat the evils of socialism, government domination of private industry, and all the "isms" that destroy democracy. The challenge is yours -- meet it!!!

MISS CANZATA BOONE

Above: A short step toward disarmament was taken with cautious optimism with the signing of the limited nuclear test ban treaty in Moscow. Seated: Sec. of State Dean Rusk, Andrei Gromyko, Lord Home. Premier Khrushchev stands behind Lord Home next to U.N. Secretary General U Thant, Adlai Stevenson and

U. S. Congressional leaders. Right photo: Red Chinese-Russian relations worsened during the year as they battled for leadership of world communism. This Moscow meeting between Mikhail Suslov, left, and Teng Hsiao-Peng in August failed to produce accord.

An unidentified priest went to the aid of a wounded soldier during a revolt in Venezuela. For this picture Hector Rondon won the 1963 Pulitzer Prize for news photography.

World Events in Review—1963

Pope Paul VI began his reign after the death of Pope John XXIII. Pope Paul reconvened the Ecumenical Council and at year's end planned an unprecedented journey to the Holy Land.

Left, below: Dr. Helge Ingstad, veteran Norwegian explorer found remains of a 9-house Viking settlement in Newfoundland dating 500 years before Columbus. Right: A huge landslide into Vaiont Reservoir in northern Italy sent a wall of water into the valley below destroying Longarone and killing some 3,000 people.

A new island, 1/4 mile long and 130 feet high, was born off southern Iceland from an underwater volcano.

Britain's new prime minister, Sir Alec Douglas-Home, took office in November, after scandals shook Harold Macmillan's government.

East-West tension continued: left; Gen. Chong of North Korea levels a pistol at U.N. spokesmen during discussions of armistice-violating raids at Panmunjom. Right; Russian attempts to control Allied access to Berlin failed in the face of western unity. This American convoy had been delayed 42 hours en route to the city.
